

Read a traceback from the bottom upward

Where Python was running

File "room_check.py", line 8, in <module>

The instruction that failed

area = width * depth

Error type and message

TypeError: can't multiply sequence by non-int

Start with the last line: it names the problem. Then locate the failing instruction.