

An optimization model connects a decision to a verifiable recommendation

A solver optimizes the model you wrote; it cannot repair an unrealistic objective or missing constraint.